

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO DIVISION OF THE SOCIAL SCIENCES

STUDENT RESEARCH CONFERENCE

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 21, 8:30AM-3PM, IDA NOYES HALL, EAST LOUNGE

The Student Research Conference will showcase the breadth and diversity of the research projects undertaken by doctoral students in the Division of the Social Sciences. Join us for a day of exciting short presentations, as recipients of divisional research grants gather in Ida Noyes Hall to present the results of the research funded by their grants. David Nirenberg, Dean of the Division of the Social Sciences, will deliver the opening remarks, and the day will be concluded with tea and biscuits in the West Lounge. Don't miss this unique opportunity to learn about the cutting-edge work that is being done in the Division and to meet with faculty, students and staff.
